until you have seen our stock. You may think we can't undersell our competitors, and don't take the trouble to come and see. It will pay you well to investigate this matter. When you buy goods on credit you pay a larger profit than if you paid cash; when you spend your money with a merchant who sells on credit you also pay that large profit, for he can't sell you goods cheaper than he does your neighbor, if you do pay cash.

Our terms are CASH. We don't sell on credit to anybody, and it will not take long for you to see that you can save money by dealing with us.

We are satisfied that our $1.50 Shoes for Ladies and Misses are the best in town. Try a pair of them.

Wrinkles Around the Eyes

Are usually caused by defective sight. Many women, and likewise men, look prematurely old from these wrinkles. The wrinkles in many cases can be removed by wearing correctly fitted glasses. To fit glasses correctly demands a thorough knowledge of refraction and the necessary instruments. We have both; hundreds of satisfied customers will say so.

AT PLEASANT GARDEN.

A Large Crowd Greeted the Candidates.

The county and legislative candidates spoke to a large crowd yesterday at Pleasant Garden. Several parties went down from the city and heard the discussions.

Wilson and Bradshaw, and Kennett and Douglas, are the quartette around whom the most interest centers. They do most of the talking. Messrs. Wilson and Kennett are well able to handle their opponents, while Capt. Bunch hasn't anything so far to speak against, his opponent merely announcing himself.

We learn that Bradshaw and Douglas reaffirmed their statements of the day before that they are in favor of white supremacy. We dare them to make the same speeches before a republican audience in Greensboro which they made at Hodgin's store.

New Law Firm.

The Telegram welcomes to Greensboro the new law firm of Long & Newlin, whose office is located over Fariss' drug store. The senior member, Jacob A. Long, is well known to many Greensboro people, having been a lawyer for twenty or twenty-five years at Graham, where he will still reside, the junior member, Mr. O. S. Newlin, having charge of the office in this city.

Mr. Newlin graduated at Trinity College in '96 and at once entered the University Law School, where he graduated last June. He was licensed to practice law last February. He is a most exemplary young man and is well equipped for the practice of his profession. The editor of this paper has known him since 1892, and it gives us pleasure to commend him to the good people of Greensboro and Guilford county as entirely worthy of their highest esteem and confidence.

Mr. Long needs no introduction at our hands. We wish the new firm success in our growiug city.

The Chrysanthemum Show.

There was considerable frost this morning. The cool, crisp air reminded us that it is getting time to remind the good ladies of their promise made last fall, to give us another chrysanthemum show, and it is most time to begin talking about it.

We all remember the magnificent display made last fall in the McAdoo building and are looking forward with bright anticipations to its repetition. Let us know what is going to be done about it.

A Pretty Place.

After considerable annoyance and waiting, Mr. S. J. Kaufman has rereceived his show cases, and his store, which was already a pretty place, is very attractive now. The cases are the prettiest we have seen, of heavy French plate glass, and the most convenient ever made for displaying shirts, neckwear, jewelry, etc. Call and see them, under the Benbow.

Don't Forget

That next Saturday is registration day and unless you register you can't vote. No white man who believes in good government can afford to miss this opportunity. One single voter may hold the future destiny of the state in his hands. It is highly important therefore, for every man to register and vote.

Yes, Sweet and Juicy.

Rev Tommy Dixon preached one of his political sermons in Brooklyn last Sunday night, his subject being "Stand by McKinley." He declared that the war is not over yet and that a democratic victory in the congressional elections this fall would be the signal for Spain to smash the protocol, and for other nations to fly to her aid. Tommy certainly is a sweet one. This country has never had a pulpiteer who could furnish half as much thunder and lightning.—Charlotte Observer.

The majority of the Greensboro company here left for home yesterday. They stated that they had orders to report in Greensboro to be mustered out on November 10th.—Morning Post.

Tammany has raised the assessments on office-holders in New York and will raise one of the largest campaign funds in its history.

Major Stedman Speaks.

Major Charles M. Stedman speaks on the issues of the day at Moffitt's Mills, Randolph county, today and on tomorrow he will speak at Franklinville in the same county.

Girls' $1.50 and $1.75 tan laced shoes, sizes 11 to 2, at $1.15. Fruit-of-the-Loom at 6 cents and Androscoggin at 5½ cents are among Thacker & Brockmann's special offerings this week.

CHADBOURN WRITES AGAIN

The Truth About Negro Office Holders in New Hanover

IN A LETTER TO PRITCHARD.

White Citizens and Tax Payers, Regardless of Party, Will Put Down Negro Domination.

The following letter appeared in the Wilmington papers which explains itself. It is supplementary to the letter recently written Senator Pritchard, which was circulated as a campaign document. It will be seen that the views of the postmaster have undergone a decided change; and it is safe to predict that letter No. 2 will not be used as a campaign document by the Republicans.

Mr. Chadbourn grasps the situation in a most comprehensive manner when he says: "There seems to be a settled determination on the part of the property owners, business men and taxpayers that they will administer city and county government." And Mr. Chadbourn might have added that the same determination exists to elect the legislative ticket, which is a hundred fold more important to them than are the county offices. The letter is as follows:

Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 16, 1898.

Senator J. C. Pritchard:

Dear Sir—Since writing you on September 26th, events have taken place in this community which necessitates some further explanation on my part in order to put myself right before the community here and also to correct any mistaken impression I may have made in your mind.

For the sake of any fancied political advantage I cannot afford to make a one-sided presentation of the situation in this city and county, and by naming only the white officials and leaving out the colored, doubtless some advantage has been taken and a false color given to the actual situation, to which the basiness people and taxpayers, regardless of party, have made serious objections.

As a matter of fact, there are in this county thirty-six magistrates and a colored register of deeds and various other minor officials, besides some presidential appointees, and the property owners, tax-payers and business men seriously object to this state of affairs, as there now exists here the most intense feeling against any sort of negro domination.

There is a greater feeling of unrest and uncertainty about the maintenance of order than I have ever seen, and many, even the most conservative, feel that a race conflict is imminent, than which nothing could be more disastrous, not only to this city and county but to our party in the state; and rather than to have riot, arson and bloodshed prevail here, I, republican though I am, advise giving up the local offices in this county, as there are no national political principles involved in the contest.

I had thought at first that it was merely the usual political cry and the fight for the offices, but I am now convinced the feeling is much deeper than this, as it pervades the whole community and there seems to be a settled determination on the part of the property owners, business men and taxpayers that they will administer city and county government.

Your friend,
W. H. Chadbourn.

OUR POSITION.

We have never been antagonistic to the Greensboro Gas and Electric Light Company; but we wish to be plainly understood on the question of lighting the city. We have not advocated city ownership of the light plant. We believe the best interests of Greensboro growing as she is, demands a better service than the present company is giving. We believe the city is, and has been, entitled to cheaper rates than she has been getting. Charlotte now pays only $2.50 per light more than Greensboro pays and Charlotte is lighted all night EVERY night, while Greensboro is run on a theoretical moonlight schedule.

We are reliably informed that when Charlotte was lighted under the same system that Greensboro now is, the lights were furnished at $60 each, whereas Greensboro pays $87.50.

We have repeatedly said that if our present company can or will furnish the city with what it needs at a competitive price then the present company should have the contract. If not, then give it to a company that will give us what we need. These matters the people of Greensboro have a right to be advised of and these questions should be discussed and explained to them.

The board of aldermen some time ago passed a resolution to advertise for bids for putting in a light plant for arc lights, incandescent lights, power for manufacturing and street cars. The board voiced the sentiment of the business men and the people of Greensboro in doing this.

Now, the statement is made that the present company has decided to put in an incandescent system. Is this done to sidetrack the demand for power for manufacturing and street cars? Or has the company had assurance that the contract will be continued if that is done? Or is it intended for a bluff? Certainly, shrewd business men that they are, the Greensboro Gas and Electric Light Company would not put in these improvements if they thought there was any danger of losing the lighting contract.

We want fair play in this matter. The growth and development of Greensboro should not be stifled or hampered.

For the information of the Durham Herald and the Greensboro Record, who seem to have gotten a recent statement of this paper mixed up with the idea of city ownership of the lighting plant, we desire to say, first: We are opposed to city ownership on the ground that we want electric cars in connection with the lighting plant. In the second place we have never said, positively, that the present company had OFFERED to make a reduction of $37.50 per light. We said we understood such had or would be done. Since that was written we have seen a letter in which a member of the present company had asserted the inability of any other company to get a franchise and that before it should be done they would furnish lights at $50 each. We are not stating a vague rumor, but facts which we have seen stated on paper.

If they will go further and put in the car line, incandescent lights and power in addition, we have no objection; but, as we have said before, we don't want any bluffs.

We acknowledge with thanks the receipt of a copy of "Vol. II, Scriptural Comments," by Rev. J. C. Troy, of Jonesboro. It is a book of 161 pages, including a supplement. It contains much of the matter contributed to the religious department of the Charlotte Observer for a period of twelve months. The author's physical infirmities render it necessary for him to earn his living by his pen. His mind is bright and clear, and his book is worthy of a large sale on its merits.

It will be remembered that Senator Pritchard has been using as a campaign document a recent letter from Mr. W. H. Chadbourn, republican postmaster in Wilmington. Mr. Chadbourn has written another letter to Senator Pritchard, which we publish today, and which we challenge the Senator or any other republican speaker to carry around and use in his arguments. Mr. Chadbourn before denied the disgraceful situation, but now he has opened his eyes and reveals the true state of affairs. We ask every republican in Guilford county to read his letter.

TO NORTH CAROLINA MANHOOD.

A Democratic Woman Appeals for White Supremacy.

Dear Telegram: We are purely Southern; every beat of our heart is for the South we love; we have a Southern woman's aversion to anything that appears to overstep the bounds of woman's realm. Yet the time has come in North Carolina when the mothers, wives and daughters must come to the front. In times of peril the women of the South have always been heroines. Be so now, for our State never was in greater peril. The mother who buckles on the sword of son or husband and bids them "go to the front" with a creaking heart, yet with a voice that trembles not, is just as heroic as the man who gallantly leads a charge, and by this bravery brings victory. Ah, me! the greatest battles are those that are fought so quietly beside the hearthstones while waiting for news "from the front."

Oh, ye women of North Carolina, today a struggle is going on in our State which calls for the help of all. Silently, relentlessly, and as yet bloodlessly; but just as surely as if the battle line was drawn! Arouse yourselves and meet the issue that confronts us! Be heroines, all of you. Hold up the banner of the political party which, to a Southern woman is dear as life itself—Democracy, White Supremacy. While that banner floats to the breeze honor and life are safe.

Women of North Carolina to the front! On, on send the cry, till it penetrates and brings into action the inmates of the most isolated farm house in the State. White Supremacy in North Carolina is at stake!

Wives, mothers and daughters of Guilford, be the first to cheer the men on! Guilford, historic Guilford! Guilford, where the British and Tories received their check! Guilford! where part of the ragged army in gray; the men who followed Lee and Jackson—"the bravest of the brave"—laid down their arms.

Mothers, echo the cry of the women of 1776! Death to the Tories and Traitors! What cared our colonial mothers for the gold lace and shining uniform of the British officer or American tory? Were they not both enemies to all our mothers held dear?

No quarter to the British and tory of today!

Young girls of North Carolina, the State needs you! Like the maidens of 1776, turn a cold shoulder to the man, be he tory or British, who would turn the State to which you owe allegiance into an Inferno. Stand to your colors, girls! Cheer on the men who fain would save the state! White supremacy in North Carolina is at stake! Let that cry resound until it awakens and brings into action that great sleeping giant—the votes of the farmers. Oh! ye farmers of North Carolina, wake up! Living as you do, isolated to some extent from the busy world, many of you are in ignorance as to the importance of the battle that is now going on. We were talking a few days ago with a man whose bowed form and toil-worn hands told us he "earned his bread by the sweat of his brow." When asked what in the world was the matter with the great agricultural class, his reply was, "Oh, they are just unconcerned. They have been befooled so much they are somewhat dazed. Like myself, they don't know what to do." Unconcerned! when the issue is life or death. Unconcerned! when the negro, who fain would rule, presents an unbroken front, cheered on by a southern tory, who expects to be a great fellow (in dollars and cents, but small in manhood). Farmers, arouse yourselves from sleep! Some of you are wandering around aimlessly, carelessly, perhaps looking for something better, but it can't be found. Come back to the democratic fold. We need your stout hearts and willing hands. With the farmers in a solid phalanx, marching unfalteringly against the threatening foe, would put the enemy to rapid flight, tory leaders and all. Oh, ye farmers! our faith in you is great. Come to the rescue and show to the world our faith in you is not misplaced.

Well do we remember the warning cry that rang through the length and breadth of the Palmetto state when a "third party" was mooted there—when a few disgruntled political leaders (like the ones in North Carolina) would gladly have reared a populist party there—the cry was sent out by Tillman, the leader of the "Wool Hat Boys," and echoed by the masses, "Look at North Carolina! See where she is drifting!" Little did we then think we would be on board ship when the state was in danger of sinking. But it is so. Strong swimmers in the east, where the waves are roughest, have sent out the warning cry, Danger ahead! Pleadings and cries of wives and mothers come to us o'er the stormy waters and all too plainly tell us that the rocks and reefs have been sighted and the rapids are beyond! Oh, men of North Carolina can it be our ship is doomed? Is there no way to save her from destruction? Yes there is a way. The cable that held her fast in the trying days of '76 will stand the test again—strands of justice, honor, truth, wrapped about by triple cords of love of mother, country, home—fear not, the cable will not break—all we need is more men to the rescue while we women bid God speed.

Well, we all know when the eastern part of our state goes down the north, south and west will be drawn into the maelstrom of death and destruction.

Look at the men who are now holding the cable—men in whose veins flows the truest of southern blood, men whose blood has reddened the great battle fields of our country and made our nation great men; from whose eyes gleam intelligence and honor and whose every heart beat is for their country's good. Can it be that the head of the Anglo-Saxon in North Carolina will be bowed in shame? Can it be that the race who stand above all other races, like Saul of old, head and shoulders above the rest, shall have at last found a master in the sons of Ham. No! ten thousand times No! Answer back the manhood of North Carolina.

"Never shall shame on our heads be,
Our blood is the Greeks and hath made us free."

Then rally! then rally! farmers wake up. Do you not hear in the distance the rapids roar? Across the troubled waters we send to the men and women of the east the cheering message, The ship shall be saved. Doubtless they have grown aweary with so much battling against such fearful odds, but don't give up yet. Remember the "darkest hour is just before dawn."

Like the prophet of old, you think you are alone, but there are "7000 yet in Isarael who have not bowed the knee."

We are coming—hold on faithful—coming strong.
The ship must be saved! Pull men
Pull!

Let one of the waves that tell us the tide has turned be "Guilford county heard from, gone democratic." And as the smaller waves from all the counties culminate in one giant wave that shall sweep the old ship into peaceful waters, back into a haven of refuge, with the pure banner of White Supremacy fluttering to Heaven's breeze, let the glad cry sound forth from the lips of the good and true, Saved! Saved! While from the great sisterhood of southern states will echo the joyful plaudit: Well done! Manhood of North Carolina, Thank God! Well done.

You invite disappointment when you experiment. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are pleasant, easy, thorough little pills. They cure constipation and sick headache just as sure as you take them. Howard Gardner.

The Austrian minister of agriculture has sanctioned an appropriation for establishing, at a cost of 2000 florins each, thirty-three stations at which the army is to supply guns and ammunition for driving away hail clouds. It is considered proven that the concussion and the clouds of smoke rising into the air affect the atmospheric state of humidity.

Truth wears well. People have learned that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are reliable little pills for regulating the bowels, curing constipation and sick headache. They don't gripe. Howard Gardner.

How to Look Good.

Good looks are really more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of the vital organs. If the liver is inactive you have a bilious look; if your stomach is disordered you have a dyspeptic look; if your kidneys are affected you have a pinched look. Secure good health and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good alterative and tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils, and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at C. E. Holton's drug store. 50 cents per bottle.

Sampson Settles the Dispute.

Havana, Oct. 18, 9 p. m.—The Spaniards claim that it will be practically impossible to effect evacuation in the short period of time fixed by the Americans. They disclaim all authority to treat of any political subjects outside the strict limits of military evacuation. They insist that the sovereignty of Spain will continue until the final treaty of peace is signed in Paris.

In reply Admiral Sampson personally dictated a brief note, stating emphatically that December 1st would be positively the date on which Spain's rights, claims and sovereignty in the island of Cuba would cease to exist.

Colonel Waring estimates the cost of cleaning the city, including the dredging of the bay, drainage, sewerage and paving at $22,000,000.

One of Butler's Reckless Statements

Senator Butler said in his speech at Statesville that the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company had recently declared a dividend of 33 per cent. after paying all expenses. The Progressive Farmer made the same statement last week. It is by such reckless falsehoods, so reckless that even the negroes can see through them that Butler and his associates hope to aid the Republican party in this campaign. Why, Abe Middleton would blush if caught uttering such gross misrepresentations. But Abe and his party have bought Butler and Ramsey and Thompson and their associates and paid them to do work Abe nor Jim Young would do for themselves.—Raleigh Post.

Uncle Sam wants Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines, but what the American people desire above all and will have is "Grape" sun-cured tobacco.

How to Prevent Croup.

We have two children who are subject to attacks of croup. Whenever an attack is coming on my wife gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and it always prevents an attack. It is a household necessity in this county and no matter what else we run out of, it would not do to be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. More of it is sold here than of all other cough medicines combined.—J. M. Nickle, of Nickle Bros., merchants, Nickleville, Pa. For sale by C. E. Holton.

One Minute Cough Cure surprises people by its quick cures and children may take it in large quantities without the least danger. It has won for itself the best reputation of any preparation used today for colds, croup, tickling in the throat or obstinate coughs. Howard Gardner.

The only military company composed of chinamen that exists outside of the Chinese Empire, has been formed in Portland, Oregon. It has thirty-seven members, all full blooded Chinamen of American birth. Seid Back, Jr. its captain, was about to offer the services of the organization to the Government when the war came to an end.

Grand Rally!

Hon. C. B. Aycock will speak at Greensboro, Friday, October 21, 1898, at 1.30 o'clock.

This speaking will be in the day so that the people from all over the county may hear this speaker, who can spend only one day in the county. Ladies invited. A. M. Scales, Chairman Dem. Ex. Com.

The Mexican board of health has imported from Europe an X-ray apparatus, which is to be used for inspecting cans of preserved meats and fruits, "to determine if they are fit for consumption."

Three Doctors in Consultation.

From Benjamin Franklin.

"When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (i. e. Theory) says is best is to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclination, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

When you have a bad cold Dr. Inclination would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and permanent cure. Dr. Reason would recommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on nature's plan in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions and restoring the system to a natural and healthy condition. ## BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

No man can afford to lose his vote this time.

Shall we have a chrysanthemum show this fall?

Rev. Sam T. Barber, of Pleasant Garden, was in the city today.

If you have'nt registered see to it that this important duty is attended to next Saturday.

See new ad, in this issue, of Gardner's Cream Lotion, an excellent thing for chapped lips, hands, etc.

Capt. Wagner of the Asheville company, second Regiment, passed through at noon today en route to Raleigh.

Miss Hadley, of Wilson, who has been spending the summer in Asheville, passed through today enroute home.

John B. Fariss advertises to-day Southern Pine Cough Syrup, Witch Hazel Cream, and Bedford's Sweet Quinine.

There is a sweet potato in O'Connor's window weighing 5½ pounds. It was sent here by Mrs. John Kerr, of Yanceyville.

J. A. Rosser, who has been spending several days here with his friend C.B. Bogart, left at noon today for his home in Richmond.

R. S. McCoin, a rising young attorney, of Henderson, formerly of this place, is in town shaking hands with his many friends.

G. H. Royster has just returned from Northern markets, where he purchased a stock of goods, in which people will find many rare bargains.

The football team will go to Chapel Hill tomorrow to play the University. Greensboro has won one game and lost one this season. May she get "the best two out of three."

Mrs. W. E. Lewis entertained a party of young people last evening at her home on South Elm street, and every one present spent a most enjoyable evening. A number of games were played and at 10:15 o'clock delicious refreshments were served in an elegant manner. A short while afterward the young people departed with many pleasant expressions for Mrs. Lewis.

Charlie Abbott to Re-enlist.

Charlie Abbott, who was a hospital steward in one of the first regiments to reach Santiago after the war with Spain broke out, and who has been visiting his parents here since a short while after the surrender of Santiago, will leave tonight for Washington to re-enlist in the regular army for another three years of service. Mr. Abbott has been here almost three months, the time allowed for re-enlistment with the same rank. After going through the dangerous and terrible campaign of Santiago, he did not think he would re-enlist, but since his stay here has decided to cast his lot in the army again. He has many friends here who hope he may again return unhurt.

Soaking Sorrow.

Officer Jordan found a young soldier this morning who had drowned all his sorrow caused by the extension of the furloughs of the Second regiment. This one had evidently thought that he had large chunks of sadness, for he had "soaked" enough "firewater" to drown a lot of it. The firewater had thrown him, and he knew nothing of sorrow or anything else when the officer put him in a dray and rode with him to the calaboose. He will probably learn from the mayor that when sorrow is soaked, it swells.

Aycock Speaks Friday.

Drunk and Rowdy.

A drunk and cursing colored woman is about the meanest thing this side of a snake, and when a colored woman is mean enough to get drunk the cursing is always thrown in.

Officer Scott heard some one raising sand last night and throwing out some of the vilest language that ever passed through thick, black lips. The policeman went around to see if he could stop the noise. When he saw that it was a drunken colored woman he knew it was useless to try to stop the racket, and accordingly took her in tow and went to the lock-up, where she cursed herself to sleep.

That Tent Meeting.

We are informed that we were in error in stating that a religious meeting was in progress on the Battle Ground.

There is a tent meeting on the land of Mr. Washburn near the Battle Ground, conducted by Mr. Cooper, a Northern Methodist minister, but it is in no way connected with the Battle Ground.
